TREASURY.

"FUEL-OIL TAX ACT."

REGULATIONS.

HIS HONOUR the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to make the following regulations pursuant to the provisions of the "Fuel-oil Tax Act," chapter 71 of the Statutes of British Columbia, 1930:—

1. In these regulations the expression "Act" shall mean the "Fuel-oil Tax Act," chapter 71 of the Statutes of British Columbia, 1930; the expression "consumer" shall mean any person who consumes fuel-oil in the Province; and the expression "vendor" shall mean any person who keeps for sale or sells fuel-oil in the Province.

2. On or before the fifteenth day of each calendar month every consumer shall make and furnish a return, in duplicate, in respect of all fuel-oil consumed by him during the last preceding calendar month to the Provincial Collector of the assessment and collection district in which the fuel-oil was consumed or in which the principal office of the consumer in the Province is situated, except that in the case of a consumer using or consuming fuel-oil to heat the dwelling-house in which he resides, the return in respect of that fuel-oil shall be made and furnished to the Provincial Collector on or before the fifteenth days of April, July, October, and January in respect of the fuel-oil consumed during the last preceding quarterly period ending respectively on March 31st, June 30th, September 30th, and December 31st. The consumer shall, within the time limited for the making of the return, and without any notice or demand, pay to the Provincial Collector at his office the amount of the tax payable under the Act in respect of the fuel-oil so consumed during the month or quarter, as the case may be, required to be covered by the return. The Provincial Collector, upon the payment of the tax, shall return to the consumer one duplicate of the return duly endorsed with the official receipt for the amount paid, and shall forward the other duplicate to the Surveyor of Taxes.

3. Every consumer shall keep a record in the form prescribed by these regulations of all fuel-oil purchased by him in the Province or purchased and imported by him into the Province, showing the quantity purchased from any vendor in the Province and the quantity purchased and imported into the Province from time to time, and stating the name of the person from whom the fuel-oil was purchased and the date of purchase in the Province or the date of the importation into the Province. For the purpose of making the return required by Regulation 2, every consumer shall keep a record in the form prescribed by these regulations, showing the quantity of fuel-oil consumed by him during each calendar month or quarter, as the case may be.

4. Every applicant for a vendor's licence pursuant to section 5 of the Act shall make application therefor to the Surveyor of Taxes in the form prescribed by these regulations, stating each place of business at which fuel-oil is to be kept for sale or sold by the applicant; and the application shall be accompanied by the payment of the prescribed licence fee in respect of each place of business at which fuel-oil is to be kept for sale or sold by the applicant. A vendor's licence in respect of each place of business covered by the application shall be issued by the Surveyor of Taxes, and the licensee named in the licence shall cause it to be continuously displayed in a conspicuous place in the place of business in respect of which it is issued.

5. On or before the fifteenth day of each calendar month every vendor shall make and furnish to the Surveyor of Taxes a return in the form prescribed by these regulations in respect of all fuel-oil sold by the vendor to each purchaser during the last preceding calendar month at each place of business at which fuel-oil was kept for sale or sold by the vendor. The return shall state the name and address of each purchaser and the quantity of fuel-oil sold.

6. The following forms are hereby prescribed for the purposes of these regulations.

NOTE.—The prescribed forms are not here printed, but any form desired for use may be obtained on application to the Surveyor of Taxes or any Provincial Collector.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¼ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To carry on the business of dealers in, manufacturers, lessors, lessees, repairers, storers, importers, exporters, warehousemen, operators, and proprietors of all kinds of aeroplanes, seaplanes, flying-boats, air-ships, and machines for aerial flight, whether heavier than air or otherwise; parachutes, automobiles, motor-trucks, tractors, trailers, motor-cycles, and vehicles of all kinds; boats, motor-boats, ships, and other vessels, whether operated by mechanical power or otherwise, and all kinds of motor and other vehicles and conveyances of every nature and description; and all motors, machinery, gear, component parts, accessories, fittings, implements, utensils, appliances, apparatus, gasoline, lubricants, solutions, and all things capable of being used therewith or in connection therewith, or in the manufacture, maintenance, and working thereof respectively; and also the businesses of electricians, carriers, aeronauts, wheelwrights, japanners, annealers, enamellers, electroplaters, painters, and varnish-manufacturers; cameras, plates, films, lens, and other commodities, materials, articles, and things of any nature whatsoever capable of being used therewith or in the manufacture, maintenance, operation, and working respectively of the same or any portion thereof, or in any way incidental or capable of being used or dealt with in connection with or for the purposes of any businesses herein mentioned, or likely to be required by customers of any such businesses:

(b.) To establish and maintain lines or regular services of aircraft of all kinds, and carry on the business of carriers of passengers and goods by air, sea, river, canal, railway, and otherwise; and to enter into contracts for the carriage of mails, passengers, goods, and merchandise by any means, and either by the Company's own aircraft and conveyances or by or over the aircraft, vessels, conveyances, and railways of others; and to enter into contracts with any person or company as to interchange of traffic, running-powers, or otherwise; and in connection with any of the objects aforesaid to carry on the business of railway contractors, shippers, ship-builders, omnibus proprietors, manufacturers of machinery and railway-cars, omnibuses and coach builders; and to carry on the business of warehousemen and storers of goods, wares, and merchandise of every kind and description whatsoever, or any other trade or business whatsoever which can in the opinion of the Company be advantageously carried on by the Company in connection with or as ancillary to the general business of the Company:

(c.) To purchase or take in exchange or on lease any lands, docks, or buildings in the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere, or any leases, rights, or other interest therein, and to erect any buildings, warehouses, wharves, docks, or machinery on or to cultivate or otherwise utilize any lands for the time being belonging to the Company:

(d.) To establish aerodromes, depots, sheds, or stations for the storage or reception of aeroplanes, seaplanes, balloons, air-ships, and flying-machines, and to use and conduct experiments in connection with and to promote race-meetings, speed and trial tests for and aeronautical and other exhibitions of aeroplanes, seaplanes, balloons, air-ships, flying-machines, and motors, and to offer for competition and distribute prizes in connection therewith, or for any other purpose likely to tend to the advancement of the science and practice of aviation, aerostation, and aeronautics, and to finance inventors and others for the purpose of enabling them to test or perfect their inventions:

(e.) To establish, maintain, and conduct, or to assist in the establishment, maintenance, and conduct of, any school, club, association, or society formed for the purpose of advancing the study and practice of aviation, aerostation, and aeronautics:

(f.) To carry out experimental work in connection with the design, construction, and operation of aircraft of all descriptions:

(g.) To carry on business as exporters, importers, and shippers of and dealers in all kinds of furs and animal-skins; to treat and prepare for the market any or all of such furs and skins; to manufacture, export, import, ship, and deal in any or all articles of clothing or otherwise which are capable of being made either in whole or in part from furs or animal-skins:

(h.) To carry on the fur trade and manufacture of all articles in connection therewith, and generally all business operations, commercial, industrial, financial, directly or indirectly connected with such trade in Canada or elsewhere:

(i.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others.

To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location, exchange, or otherwise, and to hold, mines, mineral claims, placer leases, mineral leases, mining lands, oil lands, prospects, licences, and mining rights of every description, and to work, develop, operate, turn to account, sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of or deal with the same:

(b.) To dig, drill, or bore for, raise, crush, wash, smelt, reduce, refine, amalgamate, assay, analyse, and otherwise treat gold, silver, copper, lead, iron, coal, oil, shale, clay, petroleum, natural gas, and any other ore, deposit, metal, or mineral whatsoever, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to render the same merchantable, and to manufacture, buy, sell, and deal in the same or any product thereof, and to engage in any branch of mining, smelting, milling, and refining minerals, and generally to carry on the business of a mining and development company:

(c.) To purchase, take on lease or licence, obtain options over, or otherwise acquire, sell, deal with, use, and dispose of any lands, timber berths, timber leases, timber lands, or any interest therein:

(d.) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, exchange, or otherwise, and to construct, operate, maintain, or alter, trails, roads, ways, tramways, reservoirs, dams, flumes, race and other ways, watercourses, canals, aqueducts, pipe-lines, wells, tanks, bridges, wharves, piers, mills, pumping plants, factories, potteries, kilns, brick-making plant, lime-kilns, foundries, furnaces, coke-ovens, crushing-works, smelting-works, concentrating-works, refining-works, hydraulic, electrical, and other works and appliances, power devices and plants of every kind, laboratories, warehouses, boarding-houses, dwellings, buildings, machinery, plant, and other works and conveniences, and to buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in all kinds of goods, stores, provisions, implements, chattels, and effects:

(e.) To purchase, acquire, erect, construct, establish, equip, own, control, lease, maintain, and operate mills, smelters, reduction-works, refineries, plants, laboratories, shops, pipe-lines, flumes, tanks, reservoirs, warehouses, piers, docks, terminal facilities, and any and all works and conveniences directly or indirectly conducive to any of the business, objects, or purposes of the corporation:

(f.) To apply for, acquire, hold, and use water rights and water necessary for all or any of the purposes of the Company, and to develop the same, and to acquire and use water for creation of water-power, and to erect and maintain works, plant, and machinery in connection therewith, and to take, have, and enjoy the full benefit of the "Water Act" and any amendments thereto:

(g.) To construct, establish, maintain, and operate ships, aeroplanes, and means of transportation necessary or convenient for the business of the corporation:

(h.) To establish, operate, and maintain stores, trading-posts, and to carry on a general mercantile business:

(i.) To allot, credited as fully or partly paid up, the shares or bonds, debentures or debenture stock of the Company as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property acquired by the Company, or for services or other valuable consideration:

(j.) To engage in and carry on the business of manufacturing, buying, selling, and dealing in goods, wares, and merchandise of every class and description:

(k.) To promote, organize, and finance corporations, syndicates, and associations of every kind and character.

The word "company" in this memorandum, when applied otherwise than to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere; and the objects specified in each of the paragraphs hereto shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph or the name of the Company), but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company.

No. 13707.

NOTICE is hereby given that "Fraser River Holdings, Limited," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 30th day of October, 1933.

The authorized capital of the Company is ten thousand dollars, divided into four hundred shares.

The address of its registered office is 309 Royal Bank Building, 675 Hastings Street West, Vancouver, B.C.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To carry on all or any of the businesses usually carried on by land companies, land investment companies, land mortgage companies, and building estate companies in all their several branches:

(b.) To carry on the business of brokers in all its branches whatsoever, including, but without affecting the generality of the foregoing, the business of timber and lumber brokers, ship-brokers, grain-brokers, insurance-brokers, real-estate and personal-estate brokers, and also the business of agents for loan and trust companies; agents for fire, life, accident, automobile, plate glass, and marine insurance companies, and agents for any other branch of the insurance business whatsoever:

(c.) To carry on in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere the business of a finance company, and to make advances or loans upon or to purchase or discount agreements made in respect of the sale of automobiles, trucks, motor-vehicles of every description, aircraft, and other vehicles of transportation, and to make advances or loans upon the security of automobiles, trucks, motor-vehicles, aircraft, and other vehicles of transportation:

(d.) To make advances or loans upon the security of any goods, wares, merchandise, machinery, automobiles, and other vehicles, and to purchase or otherwise acquire any chattel mortgage, sale agreement, lien note, or other security upon any such property:

(e.) To buy, sell, exchange, and deal in accounts receivable, bills of lading, warehouse receipts, hire receipts, chattel mortgages, lien notes, conditional-sale agreements, and other securities in respect of the same or any of them; to take any of the said securities or other commercial paper in payment for the sale of any personal property; and to sell, charge, or hypothecate any of the said securities on personal property received in the course of its business:

(f.) To carry on the business of bond-dealers, underwriters, investment-brokers, and share-brokers in all its branches:

(g.) To carry on a general financial agency, promotion, and brokerage business:

(h.) To promote, organize, develop, and manage, or assist in the promotion, organization, development, and management of, any corporation, company, syndicate, enterprise, or undertaking, and as incidental thereto to undertake, manage, control, or otherwise deal with the business and undertaking of any corporation, firm, or individual for the purpose of protecting securities issued thereby, realizing upon the claims thereon or carrying out any transaction to completion thereof in connection with which the Company has undertaken any obligation or responsibility:

(i.) To procure capital, credit, or other assistance for establishing, extending, or reorganizing any enterprise or industry carried on or intended to be carried on by any person, firm, or corporation:

(j.) To underwrite, subscribe for, and acquire by exchange, purchase, or otherwise, and to hold, either as principal or agent or absolutely as owner or by way of collateral security or otherwise, and to sell, guarantee the sale of, offer for public subscription, exchange, transfer, assign, or otherwise dispose of or deal in bonds, debentures, mortgages, or other evidence of indebtedness, stock, shares, and other securities of any Government, governmental agency, taxing body, commission, or municipal corporation, or of any banking, public utility, commercial, industrial, or other company or corporation whatsoever, individual, or association, whether in British Columbia or elsewhere, and while the owner thereof to exercise all the rights and privileges of ownership, including all voting rights, if any, with respect thereto:

(k.) To raise and assist in raising money for, and to aid by way of bonus, loan, promise, endorsement, guarantee of payment of dividends upon shares, guarantee of bonds, debentures, or other securities or otherwise, any company, corporation, firm, person, business, or undertaking; provided that nothing herein nor in the last preceding clause contained shall confer on the Company the powers of an insurance company within the meaning of the "Insurance Act":

(l.) To act as agent or attorney in the acquisition, management, sale, assignment, transfer, encumbrance, conveyance, or other disposition of any real or personal property, the investment and collection of moneys, rents, interests, dividends, hypothecs, bonds, notes, and other securities; and in the name of the Company to invest the funds of two or more principals, for whom the Company is acting as agent, in real estate or upon the security of real estate for the benefit of such principals, and to execute and deliver a declaration in favour of each principal showing his respective interest in such investment:

(m.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient with reference to any of these objects, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated to facilitate the realization of any securities held by the Company, to prevent or diminish any apprehended loss or liabilities, or which may seem capable of being profitably dealt with by way of resale or otherwise, and in particular any land, buildings, ground-rents, reversions, policies of assurances, life interests, choses in action, book debts, and other assets:

(u.) To lend money and negotiate loans; to draw, accept endorse, discount, buy, sell, and deal in bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, debentures, coupons, and other negotiable instruments and securities; to issue on commission, subscribe for, take, acquire, and hold, sell, exchange, and deal in shares, stocks, bonds, obligations, or securities of any Government, authority, or company; to form, promote, subsidize, and assist companies, syndicates, and partnerships of all kinds; to give any guarantee for the payment of money or the performance of any obligations or undertaking; to acquire, improve, manage, work, develop, exercise all rights in respects of, lease, mortgage, sell, dispose of, turn to account, and otherwise deal with property of all kinds, and in particular land, buildings, concessions, patents, business concerns and undertakings; to enter into any arrangements with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions, and, if deemed advisable, dispose of any such arrangements, charters, rights, privileges, and concessions; generally to carry on and undertake any business undertaking, transaction, or operation commonly carried on or undertaken by capitalists, promoters, financiers, concessionaires, contractors for public and other works, merchants, and any other business whatsoever; provided nothing herein shall confer the powers of an insurance company within the meaning of the "Insurance Act":

(o.) To amalgamate with any person or persons or any company established for objects altogether or in part similar to the objects of this Company or otherwise, and for such consideration, either in shares or debentures of another company or cash, as the Company may think fit; and to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(p.) To register or license the Company in any other part of the British Empire or elsewhere:

(q.) None of the preceding subclauses or objects therein specified, or the powers thereby conferred, nor the powers set forth in section 22 of the "Companies Act" shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause; and the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be independent main objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted in reference to inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

H. G. GARRETT,
4314-no2 Registrar of Companies.

NOTICE is hereby given that the American Home Fire Assurance Company was licensed on the 17th day of October, 1933, under the "Insurance Act," to undertake within the Province of British Columbia fire and tornado insurance and insurance against loss of or damage to an automobile, insurance against liability for loss or damage to property caused by an automobile, and insurance against loss of or damage to property other than growing crops by hail.

Its head office is situate at 720 Pacific Building, Vancouver, and H. A. Robertson, of the same address, is the attorney appointed by it under the said Act.

This Company has acquired the rights and property of the American Home Fire Assurance Company, which was consolidated by agreement dated October, 1932, with the American Constitution Fire Assurance Company into a new corporation under the name "American Home Fire Assurance Company." The former Company of the same name was previously licensed, but has ceased to carry on business.

Dated this 17th day of October, 1933.

4283-oc26 H. G. GARRETT,
Superintendent of Insurance.
